Benefit's Powder Pop!, $69
This limited edition trio of Benefit's most famous powders is the latest clever product to hit our shores. Enjoy the best of three worlds in one nifty compact: Hoola is a bronzing powder for a sexy glow, Daisies is made up of a combination of blush and bronzer for a natural sun-kissed look and Dandelion is a dusting of fresh pink for a healthy flush — all in one easy-to-carry compact.

Gatherine Zeta-Jones
This screen goddess knows how to play up her best feature: those sexy, smouldering eyes. Makeup tip: Like Zeta-Jones and use dramatic loadings of mascara to really open up your eyes. Application tip: Always comb lashes before application as this really helps lashes to pop. Warning: your mascara wand in a zig-zag motion over your lashes reduces clumps and coats them with just the right amount of mascara.

Rachel Bilson
This youthful-looking star is prone to playing up her die-eyed charm with heavy eyeliner. This look really works on Bilson as she keeps the rest of her makeup simple, with a few coats of mascara, flushed cheeks and nude lips. Application tip: The key to this look is balance, so add a little more color to the cheek but a hint of gloss on the lips is all you truly need. For a more playful look, try colored eyeliner.

Kirsten Dunst
This Hollywood starlet is not afraid to be unconventional. Unlike other thin-lipped celebrities, Kirsten plays up her small mouth with deep, red shades. Application tip: Lipstick this dark has to be precisely applied. Make sure lips are moisturised and if you have time, apply a light coat of foundation on your lips so the red comes out true to its shade. Using a lipstick brush helps prevent bleeding.

Jan Marini's Age Intervention Eyelash Conditioner, $272.85, from The Sloane Clinic
Apply this on your lashes everyday and see visible thickening and lengthening of your lashes in three weeks.

What's not to love about Make Up Store's eyelash applicator, $15. Use this handy tool to put on those hard-to-apply fake eyelashes. It grips the eyelash while you apply the glue and keeps it steady as you press those fluttering falsies on your lids.

Averine Green Sparkles Eyeliner, $33, from Leonard Drake
Green eyeliner is great for the holiday season. Use only on the top lid and line the bottom lid with black eyeliner for more definition.
