

LUNCHTIME Facelift

Touted as the lunchtime facelift of the year, Restylane Hydrolift uses FDA-approved natural hyaluronic acid microinjections into the skin to give tired, saggy faces a subtle lift. It replenishes skin's lost hyaluronic acid stores that invariably deplete with age. The procedure is quick and fast, with no downtime. A more defined and lifted facial contour as well as a reduction of wrinkles can be noticed instantly. Your skin continues to improve even after you've left the clinic, as the hyaluronic acid continues to stimulate the skin to produce collagen. The result? A radiant, firmer and more luminous skin. Available at all branches of The Sloane Clinic. 6509 8108 www.sloaneclinic.com

Eyelash

Beauty shops across the island are stocked full of thickening and glue-on eyelashes that thicken and longer lashes, even laser treatments that extend the growth phase of lashes to be longer. Best results are achieved by people who already have long lashes, so if yours are sparse you may be disappointed.

Alaxis now offers eyelash hair transplants, a refinement of hair techniques. The procedure harvests around 50 single hairs, then transplants individually along the upper eyelid margin. The eye is safely protected by a silicon shield. Prices start from 6233 0808 www.alaxis.com.sg

Spot Off

Eldoquin is a cream that effectively lightens stubborn age freckles, melasma or other dark areas of skin. Contains hydroquinone, it requires a doctor's prescription. Hydroquinone works by decreasing the production and increasing the level of melanocytes (the source of skin colour) in the skin's epidermis. Most people will see some results within four weeks of treatment, and final results will be apparent after eight to twelve weeks. Available from Gynae4U Women's & Rejuvenation Clinic, it costs $45 per tube. 6233 8810 www.gynaefu.com.sg
