Make A Fall Fashion Change

Shoulders are the new cleavage, thigh-high

Female (Aug 2009)

The Sloane Clinic "will also offer Ultherapy, a new non-surgical facelift, which can penetrate deeper into the skin than conventional treatments".

Sephora

The second largest in the world, it will house a Green Zone for organic and eco-friendly brands, a dedicated Skin Solutions Centre, a new Hair Lounge, and a seasonal Beauty Bar for makeovers.

The Sloane Clinic

Marvel at the interactive touchscreen glass panels that will keep patients entertained while waiting. The clinic will also offer Ultherapy, a new non-surgical facelift, which can penetrate deeper into the skin than conventional treatments.

Thomas Sabo

This Bulgarian brand is best known for its quirky and rock 'n' roll accessories.

TM Lewin

The traditional British shirt brand makes its first appearance outside of London with a store that carries both its men's and women's collections.

Tag Heuer

Check out the futuristic display for its products (motor racing, diving, golf and women's watches). Expect accessories as well as the cool Meridist phones (above).

The Body Shop

Furnished with recycled materials and LED lighting, this is truly the only eco-friendly store here. Check out the limited White Musk Midnight Iris collection (above).

Topshop/Topman

This mega duplex store will offer a mind-boggling selection of the brand's reasonably priced apparel and accessories in the latest runway trends.

Tyan

We can't wait: Soled by Jean Paul Gaultier's sexy beach wear, Sonia Rykiel's main apparel line, as well as a Vivienne Westwood Anglomania store-within-a-store that houses the British design dame's eccentric clothes. Enough said.

Uniqlo

The duplex store will be the first in the region to carry the Fall/Winter 2009 collections, including the Merino-wool and 3D Denim lines. For the opening, spend $100 or more to get a free collectible tote (above).

Valentino

Be the first to check out the debut ready-to-wear collection by design duo Maria Grazia Chiuri and Pier Paolo Piccoli and the latest 360 bags (above).

Very Woonderland

This spin-off store from Woonderland will carry new brands like Californian ladies' casual wear BB Dakota and American laptop bag brand Incase.

Vivienne Tam

The Chinese-American designer's premier Jade womenswear collection shows off the best of the brand's East-meets-West aesthetics.

Yves Saint Laurent

Its largest standalone store in Asia will carry limited edition bags (above, $1,570 each) in exclusive colours and special edition bags charms embossed with "Yves Saint Laurent. Ion Orchard Singapore".
