

IN THE NEWS
 July 2011

Tittle Tattle

PEOPLE WHO MAKE THE TOWN TICK

An Encore to Remember

DRIVEN BY HER LOVE FOR ARTS AND CULTURE, JACKY DEROMEDI SPEARHEADS THIS YEAR'S ENCORE! EUROPEAN SEASON IN SINGAPORE.

AS THE HONORARY CONSUL OF MONACO TO SINGAPORE, Jacky Deromedi finds the time to juggle her diplomatic obligations with her responsibility as president of Encore! European Season, which is back in Singapore for the fourth year. To better facilitate the artistic exchange of cultures between Europe and Singapore, Deromedi is inspired to present a diverse showcase of presentations that best reflect the vibrancy of the European Union.

"I have learnt a lot from other cultures and I am always amazed by the talent and diversity that I have witnessed. The main objective of the European Season is to bring to Singapore all these European talents and attractions, especially those that do not get enough recognition, even in Europe. And I hope that in the process, there will be an opportunity to cultivate a deeper understanding of each other's perspectives and visions," says Deromedi.

The Encore! European Season programme encompasses the many facets of arts and culture such as music, dance, theatre, film, visual arts, literature, fashion, performance and street theatre. Until May 2012. Tel: 6887 4686.

Jacky Deromedi

GRIST TO THE RUMOUR MILL.

HOW LOW CAN YOU GO? A domestic helper was seen at a luxury beauty counter picking out an unusual cosmetic concoction, lip-gloss, or oil. Except that they weren't for her - she was buying them on behalf of her "Abdullah", a certain member of high society, which local news reports about her personal life.

BOTTLE TALK It's easy to get caught in the web of the ubiquitous of the rich and elite. One usually charming gentleman showed up on two separate occasions (one was at noon on a weekday and the other was an after-work cocktail) making of alcohol. While he wasn't unruly, we wish he'd sober up so the dubious side of him will show through.

BEACHTY After a recent event, when legs were fanned out to all guests and media members. However, one society lad instead of having a media bag on top of his car, he had already removed it as a regular guest. And when the receptionists gently said him that the requested bag was specifically prepared for media, he promptly went from socialite to snarky saying, "Well then, it's from (name of publication) leading to more than a few dropped jaws."

An Eye for Beauty

A PASSIONATE DOCTOR WHO VALUES TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT, LOW CHAI LING PLAYS A PROACTIVE ROLE IN ADVOCATING BEST PRACTICES IN HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Low Chai Ling

A RESPECTED VETERAN IN THE beauty industry, Low Chai Ling is medical director of The Sloane Clinic, which she co-founded in 2003, and she sits on the board of the American Academy of Anti-Ageing Medicine and the World Society of Anti-Ageing Medicine. She also maintains a hectic schedule in running her clinic, training doctors, presenting at worldwide conferences are seeking long-term beauty treatments as opposed to expensive skincare and cosmetic products. "Consumers, especially women, now look beyond just concealing their flaws. They wish to get out of bed looking beautiful. Now, they can also look forward to Latisse, a prescribed eyelash growth product that promises longer, fuller and natural-looking lashes," says Low.

Latisse has garnered attention for being the first and only FDA-approved product of its kind. Available at selected clinics. Tel: 6509 8108

An Eye for Beauty

A PASSIONATE DOCTOR WHO VALUES TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT, LOW CHAI LING PLAYS A PROACTIVE ROLE IN ADVOCATING BEST PRACTICES IN HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Low Chai Ling

A RESPECTED VETERAN IN THE beauty industry, Low Chai Ling is medical director of The Sloane Clinic, which she co-founded in 2003, and she sits on the board of the American Academy of Anti-Ageing Medicine and the World Society of Anti-Ageing Medicine. She also maintains a hectic schedule in running her clinic, training doctors, presenting at worldwide conferences and writing books such as In Full Bloom: Look Fabulous During and After Pregnancy.

Low has noticed a trend in recent years where consumers are seeking long-term beauty treatments as opposed to expensive skincare and cosmetic products. "Consumers, especially women, now look beyond just concealing their flaws. They wish to get out of bed looking beautiful. Now, they can also look forward to Latisse, a prescribed eyelash growth product that promises longer, fuller and natural-looking lashes," says Low.

Latisse has garnered attention for being the first and only FDA-approved product of its kind. Available at selected clinics. Tel: 6509 8108